4. [redacted] Met with Frank Sullivan, Senate Armed Services Committee, and delivered to him the maps he requested yesterday for use by Senator Sam Nunn (D., Ga.) in his trip to the Far East.

5. [redacted] Received a call from Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Subcommittee on Internal Security, Senate Judiciary Committee, who told me that the Subcommittee would be interested, when available, in meeting [redacted] They would like to review his knowledge of activities in the United States. I told Sourwine that it is my understanding that [redacted] area of expertise is related primarily to [redacted] but that his knowledge of matters in the states were limited. I told him I would check the matter and be back in touch with him late next week.

6. [redacted] Received a call from the Legislative Reference Division, OMB, and was advised that the Enrolled Bill on S. 3418, the privacy bill, was ready for pick up by an Agency courier for our comments. Arrangements were made with the couriers for the bill to be picked up.

Arrangements were also made to have the Agency comments

7. [redacted] Talked to Bill Skidmore, OMB, concerning the Director's endorsement of [redacted] Skidmore told me the information contained in the letter was more than adequate and there would be no problem as far as signing of the bill by the President. [redacted] CI Staff, has been advised.

8. [redacted] Delivered to Jane Mathias, Secretary to George Ashworth, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff [redacted]

[redacted] These were in follow up from our briefing of Senator Charles H. Percy (R., Ill.) and Ashworth and Charles F. Meissner, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, from Wednesday, 18 December.

9. [redacted] Delivered to the offices of Representatives William G. Bray (R., Ind.) and William E. Minshall (R., Ohio) personal letters from the Director on their defeat and retirement from the Congress.
